Wommack Mill

Group Use Guidelines & Regulations

The Wommack Mill has been restored by the Fair Grove Historical and Preservation Society to preserve the heritage of our ancestors. One of our goals is to promote the Wommack Mill to the general public and to school children. In keeping with this goal, the grounds are available for weddings, family reunions and other group use.

The following are guidelines for the use of the Mill grounds:

1. All reservations are subject to approval by the Historical Society.

2. Except for when the Mill has been reserved, individuals, single families or clubs may use the grounds for picnics on a "first come-first use" basis at no charge.

3. There is a $75 fee to reserve the Mill grounds for group gatherings. If you want use of the kitchen facilities there is an additional $35 charge. We need the date and time that you wish to reserve the Mill grounds. The fee must accompany your request. Reservations and payments should be mailed to the Fair Grove Historical Society, P.O. Box 93, Fair Grove, MO 65648.

4. A Cleaning Deposit is required. Please send separate check for $75. Check will be held and returned if grounds are left as found, tables returned to original location, bathrooms and kitchen cleaned, and trash removed. If cleanup is required by Historical Society, that amount will be deducted from the $75 cleaning deposit.

5. There is an inside men's and women's bathroom available for your group's use.

6. No alcohol beverages are allowed at any time.

7. The Mill is available for tours provided you make arrangements in advance.

Fair Grove Historical Society is not responsible for accidents.

Thank you for your interest in the Wommack Mill. Please help us keep the Mill grounds clean and ready for the next group.

Please retain these Guidelines for your reference.
